INSTRUCTIONS FOR CLUB RULES CHAIR 2011

The Rules Chair is responsible for:

RULES COMMITTEE: The Rules Committee should be composed of the Rules Chair and two other members. The Chair and her Committee should keep all members informed about the conditions of the competition and the Rules in force. The Chair and other Committee Members should familiarize themselves with the Rules of Golf. The Committee is responsible for the proper application and interpretation of the Rules of Golf.

RULES BOOKS: Copies of the current The Rules of Golf book should be made available to all players. New Rules books are published by the USGA and updates are made periodically. Copies are available at the CWDGA Spring Meeting. A copy of the Decisions on The Rules of Golf book should be in the womens' locker room.

POSTING RULES: The Rules Committee is responsible for posting, in advance of play, the regulations and rules governing all scheduled events.

DECISIONS ON GOLF RULES: The Rules Committee decides any questions or claims that may arise. The Rules Chair and the other members of the Rules Committee should be prepared to supply general information about the Rules of Golf. The Committee should decide any Rules question that arises during scheduled play. In order to make a fair and amicable resolution of questions or claims the Committee should:

Assemble the facts. Find the Rule that pertains to the situation. Ask those involved to read the Rule or Rules that apply to the situation. Try to let them come to the right conclusion and intervene if necessary. Distinguish carefully between Rules for match play and those for stroke play. In match play, the players should be left to resolve differences on their own, whenever possible.

If a question cannot be decided by the Rules Committee, the Golf Committee, as a whole, should make a decision. If doubt still exists, the CWDGA Rules Chair may be consulted.

LOCAL RULES: See The Rules of Golf "Local Rules." Note that any penalty imposed by a Rule of Golf cannot be waived by any local Rule.
